Dear Parishioners,

As we begin this season of Advent, I invite you to slow down and make a little more room for God in your life.
We all come to this season carrying different things in our hearts. Some of us are filled with joy and gratitude, while others struggle with loneliness, uncertainty, family difficulties, illness, or quiet burdens no one else sees.
The beautiful message of Advent is that God does not wait for our lives to become perfect before meeting us. He comes to us as we are, in the midst of our struggles, weaknesses, and hopes.
Let us prepare for Christmas not only by decorating our homes but also by preparing our hearts, finding time for prayer, healing a wounded relationship, listening to someone who feels forgotten, and rediscovering the beauty of the little things we often take for granted.
May this Advent be less about how much we accomplish and more about how deeply we love, how attentively we listen, and how generously we welcome Jesus in one another.
May the Lord renew your hope, bring peace and joy to your hearts, and fill your homes with His loving presence.
I wish you and your loved ones a blessed Advent season.

With affection and prayers,

Fr. Augusto
Pastor
